

The Wooden Way

Enthusiasm, Cooperation,
Selfcontrol, Alertness - The Building
Blocks of Leadership and a Culture of Safety

Success is peace of mind attained only through self-satisfaction in knowing you made the effort to do the best of which you're capable. - John Wooden

Who is John Wooden ?

- Voted the greatest Coach in the history of American Sports.
- Authored or Coauthored 14 Books (12 after he became 90 years young.)
- Best Author on Leadership, Teambuilding and Personal Performance of the 21st Century
- The ultimate collaborator of Wisdom
- Sought after coach and mentor by highly successful people

No written word or spoken plea
Can teach our employees what they should be
Nor all the manuals on all the shelves
It is what the managers are themselves

Enthusiasm

Brushes off on those with whom you come in contact. You must truly enjoy what you are doing.

A CULTURE OF SAFETY REQUIRES:

- 1. Communication (across all levels)
- 2. Caring (people want what's best for all)
- 3. Commitment (execution of policies)
- We need a positive work place for these three things to exist.
- With a negative boss people don't want to be at work. Sometimes they won't pay attention to detail and accidents happen.

A Positive Environment Improves Our Chances of Having a Safe Environment

A WORK CULTURE BY DESIGN NOT BY DEFAULT

THERE ARE NO PROBLEMS ONLY OPPORTUNITIES.

WHATEVER HAPPENS?

- KEEP A POSITIVE ATTITUDE
 - GET IN THE SOLUTIONS DEPARTMENT
 - FIND THE ADVANTAGE IN THE DISADVANTAGE

ENTHUSIASM

- Enthusiasm is a catalyst – takes work to a more productive level
- Concentrate on people first – clients second-transactions next
- Main task for every coach/leader – generate enthusiasm.
- A coach/leader must have the friendship, loyalty and cooperation of his/her team members in order to have an enthusiastic team.
- The coach/leader will only receive these if he/she gives them first.

ENTHUSIASM

How a leader creates enthusiasm

- Keep a cheerful, optimistic disposition. Think positively rather than negatively. Sincere optimism builds confidence and courage.
- The Leader has faith in people. He believes in them, trusts them and thus draws out the best in them.
- It's better to trust and be disappointed occasionally than to distrust in be miserable all the time

(Abraham Lincoln)

ENTHUSIASM

How a leader creates enthusiasm.

- Vision. Provide your team members with a realistic incentive-a picture of the possible.
- Give your team an optimistic picture-not an idealistic picture:“Idealism is unrealistic and I think you have to be a realistic. I like realistic idealism”-John Wooden
- Communication that creates enthusiasm:

Cooperation

With all levels of your co-workers. Listen if you want to be heard. Be interested in finding the best way, not in having your own way.

COOPERATION

- Ask for and listen to input from others
- Helps make better decisions and builds a stronger team
- Creates a culture where people buy in. Team members must feel their opinion matters.
- Requires transparency and leaders who eagerly admit their mistakes.
- Communication that creates Cooperation:

Self-Control

Practice self-discipline and keep emotions under control. Good judgement and common sense are essential.

Two Workplace Favorites for Self-Control that create Safety:

Be quick but don't hurry.

If you don't have the time to do it right when will you have time to do it over.

Alertness

Be observing constantly. Stay open-minded. Be eager to learn and improve.

STIMULATE ALERTNESS

- 1. WEEKLY TROUBLE SHOOTING CONTEST
- 2. MY GREAT TEAMMMATE
- 3. SAFETY BINGO
